

WEMBLEY CHOI KWANG DO

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR

PARENTS AND CARERS

Note: Where we refer to 'parents' we mean parents and carers inclusively. The term 'children' or 'child' describes any person under the age of 18.

As a parent of a child taking part in our Martial Art School, we'd like you to:

The essentials

- ✓ - make sure your child has their Choi Kwang Do Uniform on for the class, brings their hand and foot safety as well as a bottle of water.
- ✓ try to make sure your child arrives to sessions on time and is picked up promptly; or let us know if you're running late or if your child is going home with someone else.
- ✓ complete all consent, contact and medical forms and update us straight away if anything changes
- ✓ make sure your child wears appropriate shoes to train in
- ✓ maintain a good relationship with your child's Instructors and catch up with them as much as you can about your child's development
- ✓ talk to us if you have any concerns about any part of your child's involvement - we want to hear from you

Behaviour

- ✓ try and learn about your child's Martial Art classes and what it means to them
- ✓ take the time to talk to your child about what you both want to achieve through the Martial Art
- ✓ remember that children get a wide range of benefits from participating in sport, like making friends, getting exercise and developing skills. It's not all about wins and losses
- ✓ listen when your child says they don't want to do something
- ✓ behave positively in the Do-Jang, when appropriate shout encouragement, say "Well done" and let your children know you're proud of what they're doing
- ✓ think about how the way you react and behave effects not just your child but other children too
- ✓ encourage your child to respect and celebrate difference in our Martial Art School

- ✓ lead by example when it comes to positive behaviour in our Do-Jang; or let other parents take their cues from you, as well as from us
- ✓ accept the Instructors judgment and do not interrupt an ongoing class unless in an emergency
- ✓ use social media responsibly when talking about what goes on in our Martial Art School, by behaving in the same way online as you would in person
- ✓ talk to your child about embracing good etiquette and sportsmanship
- ✓ encourage your child to participate by the rules
- ✓ ensure that your child understands their code of conduct

As a parent, we understand you have the right to:

- ✓ be assured that your child is safeguarded during their time with us
- ✓ see any of our policies and procedures at any time
- ✓ know who the safe guarding lead responsible for your child is and have their contact details
- ✓ be involved and contribute towards decisions within the school
- ✓ know what training and qualifications our Instructors have
- ✓ be informed of problems or concerns relating to your child
- ✓ know what happens if there's an accident or injury, be informed if your child is injured and see records of any accidents
- ✓ have your consent sought for anything outside of our initial consent form, such as permission to go on trips or photography
- ✓ have any concerns about any aspect of your child's welfare listened to and responded to

We expect all parents to follow the behaviours and requests set out in this code. If any parent behaves in a way which contradicts any of the points set out above, we'll address the problem straight away with the parent and aim to resolve the issue.

Persistent concerns or breaches may result in parents being asked not to attend our school if their attendance is considered a risk to the welfare and enjoyment of young participants.

Continued issues and repeated breaches of this code may result in us regrettably asking your child to leave the school permanently, something we never want to do.
